WASHINGTON.

THE GENEVA ARBITRATORS.

GEN. SHERMAN-WEATHER,

Wasmingrox, August 14.—A despatch from Marster Schenck confirms the report received by cable telegram, that Sir Alexander Cockburne, Lord Chief Justice of England, is to be arbitrator at Geneva, under the treaty at Washington, and Sir Houndell Palmer, counsel.

It is now certainly known that the Assistent Surretare Respect Davis is to be brought before the tribunal.

Robert S. Hall, of the state of New-York, agent and counsel on the part of the United States for claims to come before the commissioners to set in Washington, is now here on business connected with his office. First Lieutenant James Carlin, of the first United States cavairy, having been tried by court martial and found guitty of conduct prejudicious to good order and military discipline in having ordered a soldier to discharge his carbine at a target before which trumpeter Kelsey was standing, and by which the trumpeter was killed, has been dismissed from service.

GEN. SHERMAN Leaves here to-morrow for a leisure trip to Gettysburg and vicinity, in his own car-riage, and before returning will probably visit President Grant at Long Branch.

WEATHER REPORT. The barometer has risen slightly sluce Sunday afternoon at the Pacific and Rocky mountains stations, and remains stationary north and west of Missouri. It has fallen in Wisconsin and Michigan, and threatening weather is reported from Southern Wisconsin and Iowa. Rainy and cloudy weather has continued in Forida and South Carolina and are now reported from Louis-Carolina, and are now reported from Louis-ana eastward. Maximum temperature has extended from Missouri and Arkansas to West Virginia. In West Virginia and East Tennessee southeastly winds, with partially cloudy and clear weather, have prevailed, as also on the middle and east Atlantic coasts. The barometer will probably rise in the corthwest without material change in the sasther. Conditions are favorable for lower than the conditions are favor cal storms to-night in Wisconsin and Illinois, which will probably be reported on Tuesday afternoon over the same region. Light rains, if any, will probably be experienced to-morrow on the gulf coast, and an increased cloudiness, with generally pleasant weatherthrough out the Atlantic

AGRICULTURAL CONVENTION

ATTEMPTED LYNCH LAW AT ROCKFORD.

CAICAGO, August 14.—A convention has been called to meet in Chicago on the 24th inst., to be composed of the presidents of agricultural colleges, professors of agriculture and other persons in the United States and British provinces, who are engaged or interested in promoting agricultural science by experiments in field or labratory, for the purpose of organizing, consulting and co-operating in the great work of advancing the cause of agricultural knowledge and education especially by experiments with similiar crops, under similiar conditions, at all the agricultural colleges in the country. The call is signed by a number of the leading professors of agricultural colleges in the United States and Canadas.

ATTEMPTED LYNCHING. AGRICULTURAL CONVENTION.

ATTEMPTED LYNCHING. Several demonstrations have been made upon the Rockford (Ill.) jail for the purpose of selzing and lyncing a negro who committed rape on the little daughter of Mr. Walton, but none proved successful. It is said that several other attempts will follow on Saturday. Sheriff Flynn swore in as special deputies several men who were engaged in the first attempt to secure the negro for the purpose of lynching the negro for the purpose of lynching

SELF DESTRUCTION.

SELF DESTRUCTION.

St. Louis, August 14.—Frank Hanseler, while supposed to be laboring under delirium tremens yesterday, in Baden, six miles north of this city, stabbed himself in the abdomen and otherwise mutilating himself horribly, and then cut his throat. He did notsever the jugular, however, and is still alive, but cannot recover. MYSTERIOUS DEATH.

Several days ago a stock dealer from Illinois was picked up on the street in a dranken condition and taken to a house on Fifth street. Yesterday he returned to the St. Nicholas hotel suffering from a terrible beating he had received, and yester-day he died. A mystery envelopes the case which will probably be unravalled at the coroner's inquest. KILLED BY THE CARS.

Thos, McConnel was run over and killed by a railrowd train near Sedules, Mo., last Friday.

The Cape Gardeau Argus says one day last week Sheriff Albert arrested Wm. F. Pickering and his two sons, James and William, a short distance from Cape Girardeau. These men are accused of having killed a man named Austin, near Harrisburg, Saline county, Illinois, on July 30. The father made full confession to Sheriff
